Topic of Meeting

Discussion about whether Bread is superior to Potatoes since lately the amount of violent incidents between team members due to the topic has been increasing at an exponential rate.

Key Points

- There exists a game named after the legacy of all Bread, namely “I Am Bread”.
- Potato has a plural that increases its amount of letters but Bread doesn’t.
- Potato is more hazardous than bread when it comes to throwing projectiles.

Outcome of Meeting

Unfortunately, no line has been drawn and so the debate of Potato vs Bread still remains rather... toasty...

Further Notes

Any additional notes that really don’t fit anywhere else.
